“plane clear is pleased to announce its association with R/A Travel. We are confident that the expertise and complementary aspects of the two companies shall provide exceptional experiences for their valued clients” stated James Chitty, President of plane clear.

R/A Travel’s extreme level of expertise in high-quality travel and their understanding of how critical travel is to living, working and playing, made them an obvious choice to partner with plane clear.

Dominick Aiello, Jr. President of R/A Travel says “R/A Travel understands the unique lifestyle demands of high-profile individuals and has managed itineraries, for several internationally recognized music, and fashion celebrities with an unprecedented level of discretion and personal attention”.

Likewise, plane clear is rapidly becoming an industry leader in the air charter business and prides itself on sourcing the safest and most efficient aircraft for each itinerary. plane clear solves the headache of finding reliable luxury air transportation to routine destinations, but also to remote locations such as St Croix, the interior of BC and La Paz Mexico, to name a few.

Whether someone is looking for a unique tour of Africa or Asia, corporate, sports or entertainment travel planning, as well as theme and corporate cruises, R/A Travel’s concierge care along with plane clear’s private air charter will ensure that getting you to your next destination will be a rewarding experience for you, your family, and your colleagues.
